

CONTACT: Ginny Suhr – Vocational Guidance Services
(216) 881-6003 or PR@vgsjob.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Vocational Guidance Services Celebrating 120 Years of Preparing People with Barriers to Employment for a Brighter Future at 2010 Annual Meeting

CLEVELAND, May 2010 –Vocational Guidance Services (VGS) will present its 2010 Annual Meeting on Thursday, June 17, 2010 from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM. The event will be held at Windows on the River, 2000 Sycamore, Cleveland, Ohio. Thomas A. Waltermire, Chief Executive Officer of Team NEO, will be the Keynote Speaker. Silver Sponsors are BNY Mellon Wealth Management and The Sherwin-Williams Company; Corporate Sponsors include Applied Industrial Technologies; Dawnchem; Frantz Ward LLP; Hahn, Loeser and Parks LLP; Jones Day; KeyBank; Libman, Goldstine, Kopperman and Wolf; The Lubrizol Corporation; Medical Mutual of Ohio; and NACCO Industries, Inc. For more information, please call (216) 881-6003 or visit www.vgsjob.org.

Vocational Guidance Services is a 120-year-old non-profit organization that provides a full range of vocational rehabilitation services including job training, transitional employment, and job placement for people who are disabled or disadvantaged. Its mission is to prepare people with barriers to employment for a brighter future. VGS serves consumers throughout the state of Ohio, with facilities on both the east and west sides of Cleveland as well as in Elyria, Painesville, and Columbus. On average, VGS finds jobs for over 1,000 people each year, approximately 400 of who have significant disabilities.

###